About

Description

Mia is part of the EU, Procurement, and Competition Law team where she advises companies on complex issues related to anti-competitive agreements, abuse of dominant positions, and merger control. Furthermore, she handles cases within life sciences, IP law, procurement law, and EU regulation.

Mia is dedicated and focused on finding solutions that ensure clients navigate safely within the EU's complex regulatory framework.

Her approach is characterized by analytical precision and a deep understanding of the business implications of competition law challenges.
