About

Description

Ulrik Holsted-Sandgreen is an experienced commercial attorney advising Danish and international companies on complex commercial legal and strategic matters.

His advice includes company law, business transfers and commercial contracts. Ulrik has particular experience in distribution and commercial agency agreements, IT contracts, collaboration agreements and executive employment contracts.

Ulrik is recognised and recommended by Chambers, IFLR1000 and Legal 500 as one of Denmark's leading commercial lawyers. He is also an experienced litigator with rights of audience before the Supreme Court.

As a professional board member, Ulrik combines his legal expertise with a commercial understanding of companies' strategic and management challenges. He also advises on directors' liability, restructuring and composition arrangements.

As Ulrik's client, you will have an experienced adviser on your team, with extensive knowledge of board work and commercial law, and an eye for the business context in which the law must operate.
