About

Description

Working as an attorney in our M&A team, Camilla advises Danish and international companies, private equity funds, and venture capital funds in connection with corporate transactions.

Camilla has extensive experience in corporate law matters and is experienced in handling major Danish as well as international investments, the establishment and structuring of companies, and various commercial contracts.

As an advisor and colleague, Camilla is consistently characterized by her warm demeanor, diligence, creative thinking, and an impressive ability to remain composed in high-pressure situations. These qualities greatly benefit clients, particularly in navigating substantial and complex M&A transactions.
