About

Description

Ulrik Bayer is partner in our Corporate Commercial team specializing in company law, finance law, litigation and dispute resolution.

A significant part of Ulrik's advice also includes M&A transactions, restructurings, financing and general corporate affairs. He is known for his ability to deliver customized solutions that accounts for the client's unique needs and goals. Ulrik also has an impressive track record in litigating and in recent years has litigated several cases before the Supreme Court - with great success.

Ulrik also holds several board positions. This gives him a practical understanding of business management and corporate challenges.

When you work with Ulrik, you can expect an experienced and committed lawyer who is dedicated to achieving the best results for you and your company - both on the short and the long run.
